Mr. George Bowen
President, Milwaukee Radio Amateurs Club, Inc.
c/o Bache and Co.
229 E. Wisconsin Ave.
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Dear George:

After many hours of deliberation and going over the work several times I herewith submit to you my idea of the proposed amended Articles of Incorporation of the Milwaukee Radio Amateurs' Club, Inc. I have left sufficient space between the various articles so that we can later go over them and either add to or delete from them so that possibly after one or two meetings we can reach a satisfactory set of amended articles.

After the articles have been agreed upon, I can change the various paragraphs as decided upon and cut them apart and paste them together again in the proper order so that they can either be photostated or mimeographed, whichever will be the cheapest, as I feel every member of the corporation should have a copy of the proposed Articles at the meetings when the matter will be discussed and voted upon.

In proposing these Articles I took into consideration the old Articles, the matter that we had discussed at the last few meetings of the Amendment Committee and the information you gave me on some sheets of paper the other day. I am sure that after this work is finished we will have a final set of Articles. I wrote to the Secretary of State's office at Madison which office sent me the necessary forms for amendment and they also sent me a letter to the effect that quite often corporations will repeal the entire Articles and substitute a new complete set of Articles of Incorporation so long as the business of the corporation remains the same.

Very truly yours,

Paul A. Leeb
